

CAREER ACCESSIBILITY

Learn how to exercise your rights and request reasonable career accommodations at work

CONNECT WITH THE OFFICE OF ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES (OAS)

- Consult with trained staff about your desire for official disability assessment and verification
- Receive help advocating for reasonable accommodations in your classes
- Begin documenting the type of support you may want in future workplace environments

VISIT THE JOB ACCOMMODATION NETWORK (JAN)

If you've been looking for guidance regarding disability in the workplace, JAN has you covered. Its resources are free, well researched and confidential:

- Search for associations and advocacy groups related to your concern or need
- Browse an A-to-Z database of disabilities and ideas for creating specific accommodations
- Sign up for JAN's newsletter and blog for current disability advocacy information

EXPLORE THE MAXIMIZING YOUR DIVERSITY

- Ask about The Career Center's accommodations and browse diversity resources both on-campus and off-campus
- Learn best practices for integrating your identity into your career journey
- Find supportive communities that will aid your career development

RESEARCH U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR - OFFICE OF DISABILITY EMPLOYMENT POLICY

The U.S. Department of Labor prioritizes the career success of people with disabilities through its Office of Disability Employment Policy:

- Read cases of how policy has been implemented in real peoples' lives
- Find career advocacy programs and initiatives supported by the federal government
- Use the Workforce Recruitment Program (WRP) to connect with employers motivated to partner with you

EXPLORE LIME CONNECT

- Network with fellow students and disability advocates from a strengths-based perspective
- Stay informed about scholarships and fellowships
- Attend recruitment and networking events in major cities

WATCH CANDID CAREER VIDEOS

Instead of reading career advice, it's often convenient to see and hear from experts. Candid Careers has a compilation of videos dedicated to navigating disability and work:

- Get advice about how to approach disclosing disabilities in the workplace
- Learn about jobs you maybe hadn't considered from subject matter experts
- Discover some factors you may want to prioritize when exploring companies

MORE ACTION STEPS

- Meet with a Career Advisor or Liaison
- Visit <https://www.career.fsu.edu/stats>
- Search our online catalog, Career Key, for keywords: top rated, salary survey, remote, gig, entrepreneur

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

THE CAREER CENTER